

My home has been much more peaceful since NJ enacted the Do Not Call program. The program should stay as is without any changes.